

HERE AND THERE IN THE WHIRL OF SOCIETY

Catholic Women Entertain With Elaborate Tea

New Organization Launched by Event Honoring Salt Lake Visitors

Catholic women of Ogden entertained at a reception and tea Wednesday afternoon in the lovely rooms of the University club in compliment to the University of Salt Lake, Mrs. A. H. S. Bird, district organizer of the Catholic Women's league, and Mrs. Fred Davidson of Salt Lake, Mrs. Bird came to Ogden to complete the organization of a Catholic Women's league here. One hundred fifty persons were present.

During the early hours of the afternoon, Mrs. Bird was introduced to the Ogden women by Monsignor P. M. McManis, V. G., who spoke highly of her work and enthusiasm for the national order of Catholic women. Mrs. Bird gave a very interesting address of the origin, the history and the progress that the Catholic Women's league has made during the past years. She concluded her address with advice, giving hints of success to the local league if the women of Ogden would hold together, a unit.

Other Catholic women, Mrs. J. A. Smith, Mrs. A. A. McManis, Mrs. J. C. Lynch, Mrs. A. A. McManis, Mrs. D. J. Seery, Mrs. R. P. Ryder, Mrs. P. S. Ryder, Mrs. W. E. Quillman, Mrs. E. Quillman, Mrs. S. J. Hanna and Mrs. L. P. Hanna.

Seated at the tea table were Mrs. A. H. S. Bird, Mrs. Don McGuire, Mrs. W. L. Maginnis and Mrs. P. J. Carroll. The table was centered with a wicker basket of pink sweet peas, tied daintily with pink tulle, which fell to the table and gracefully over the sides. Four candlesticks, with pink tapers and shades, were also used. Several wicker baskets of fruit were placed here and there. Assisting in the serving were Miss Josephine Ferraro, Miss Catherine Boyle, Miss Keffeler and Miss Wint.

Madrigal selections, both popular and classical, were played by a trio from the Sacred Heart academy orchestra, which included Miss Lucille Burnhope, Miss Genevieve McCarthy, violinists, and Miss Fay Williams, pianist.

Mrs. Bird and Mrs. Davidson returned to Salt Lake following the tea. The league will be taken up at the next meeting.

W. H. Wright & Sons gave their annual ball to their store employees Wednesday evening in at the city Berthana. The entire affair was in charge of the employees, who carried out a program of unusual efficiency, with many humorous incidents. Long side invitations were extended to each employee and more than 100 guests were present. They were seated in the reception hall by Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Joseph E. Wright, Mrs. Gus Wright, Mrs. Arnold Wright, Mrs. W. H. Lyon and Miss Wright. One of the charming features of the evening which met with unqualified success was the appearance of the "Metropolitan Opera" quartet. The hall was filled with applause as the four took their places in the quartet were Bill Crawford, Dick Fowler, Hy Land and Gus Wright. Previous to the appearance of the quartet, announcements were made that the services of the Metropolitan company had been obtained at a small expense and that the members of the quartet would sing one song. The song was especially chosen for the occasion by P. L. Wright, and consisted of twenty words based on the most prominent structure in the store. Dance invitations were also unique in character, each claiming the name of some famous little. During the evening, the song leader, led in three songs, the entire company taking part. Balloons, varied colored, were dropped from the balcony, as the quartet sang "Bubbles."

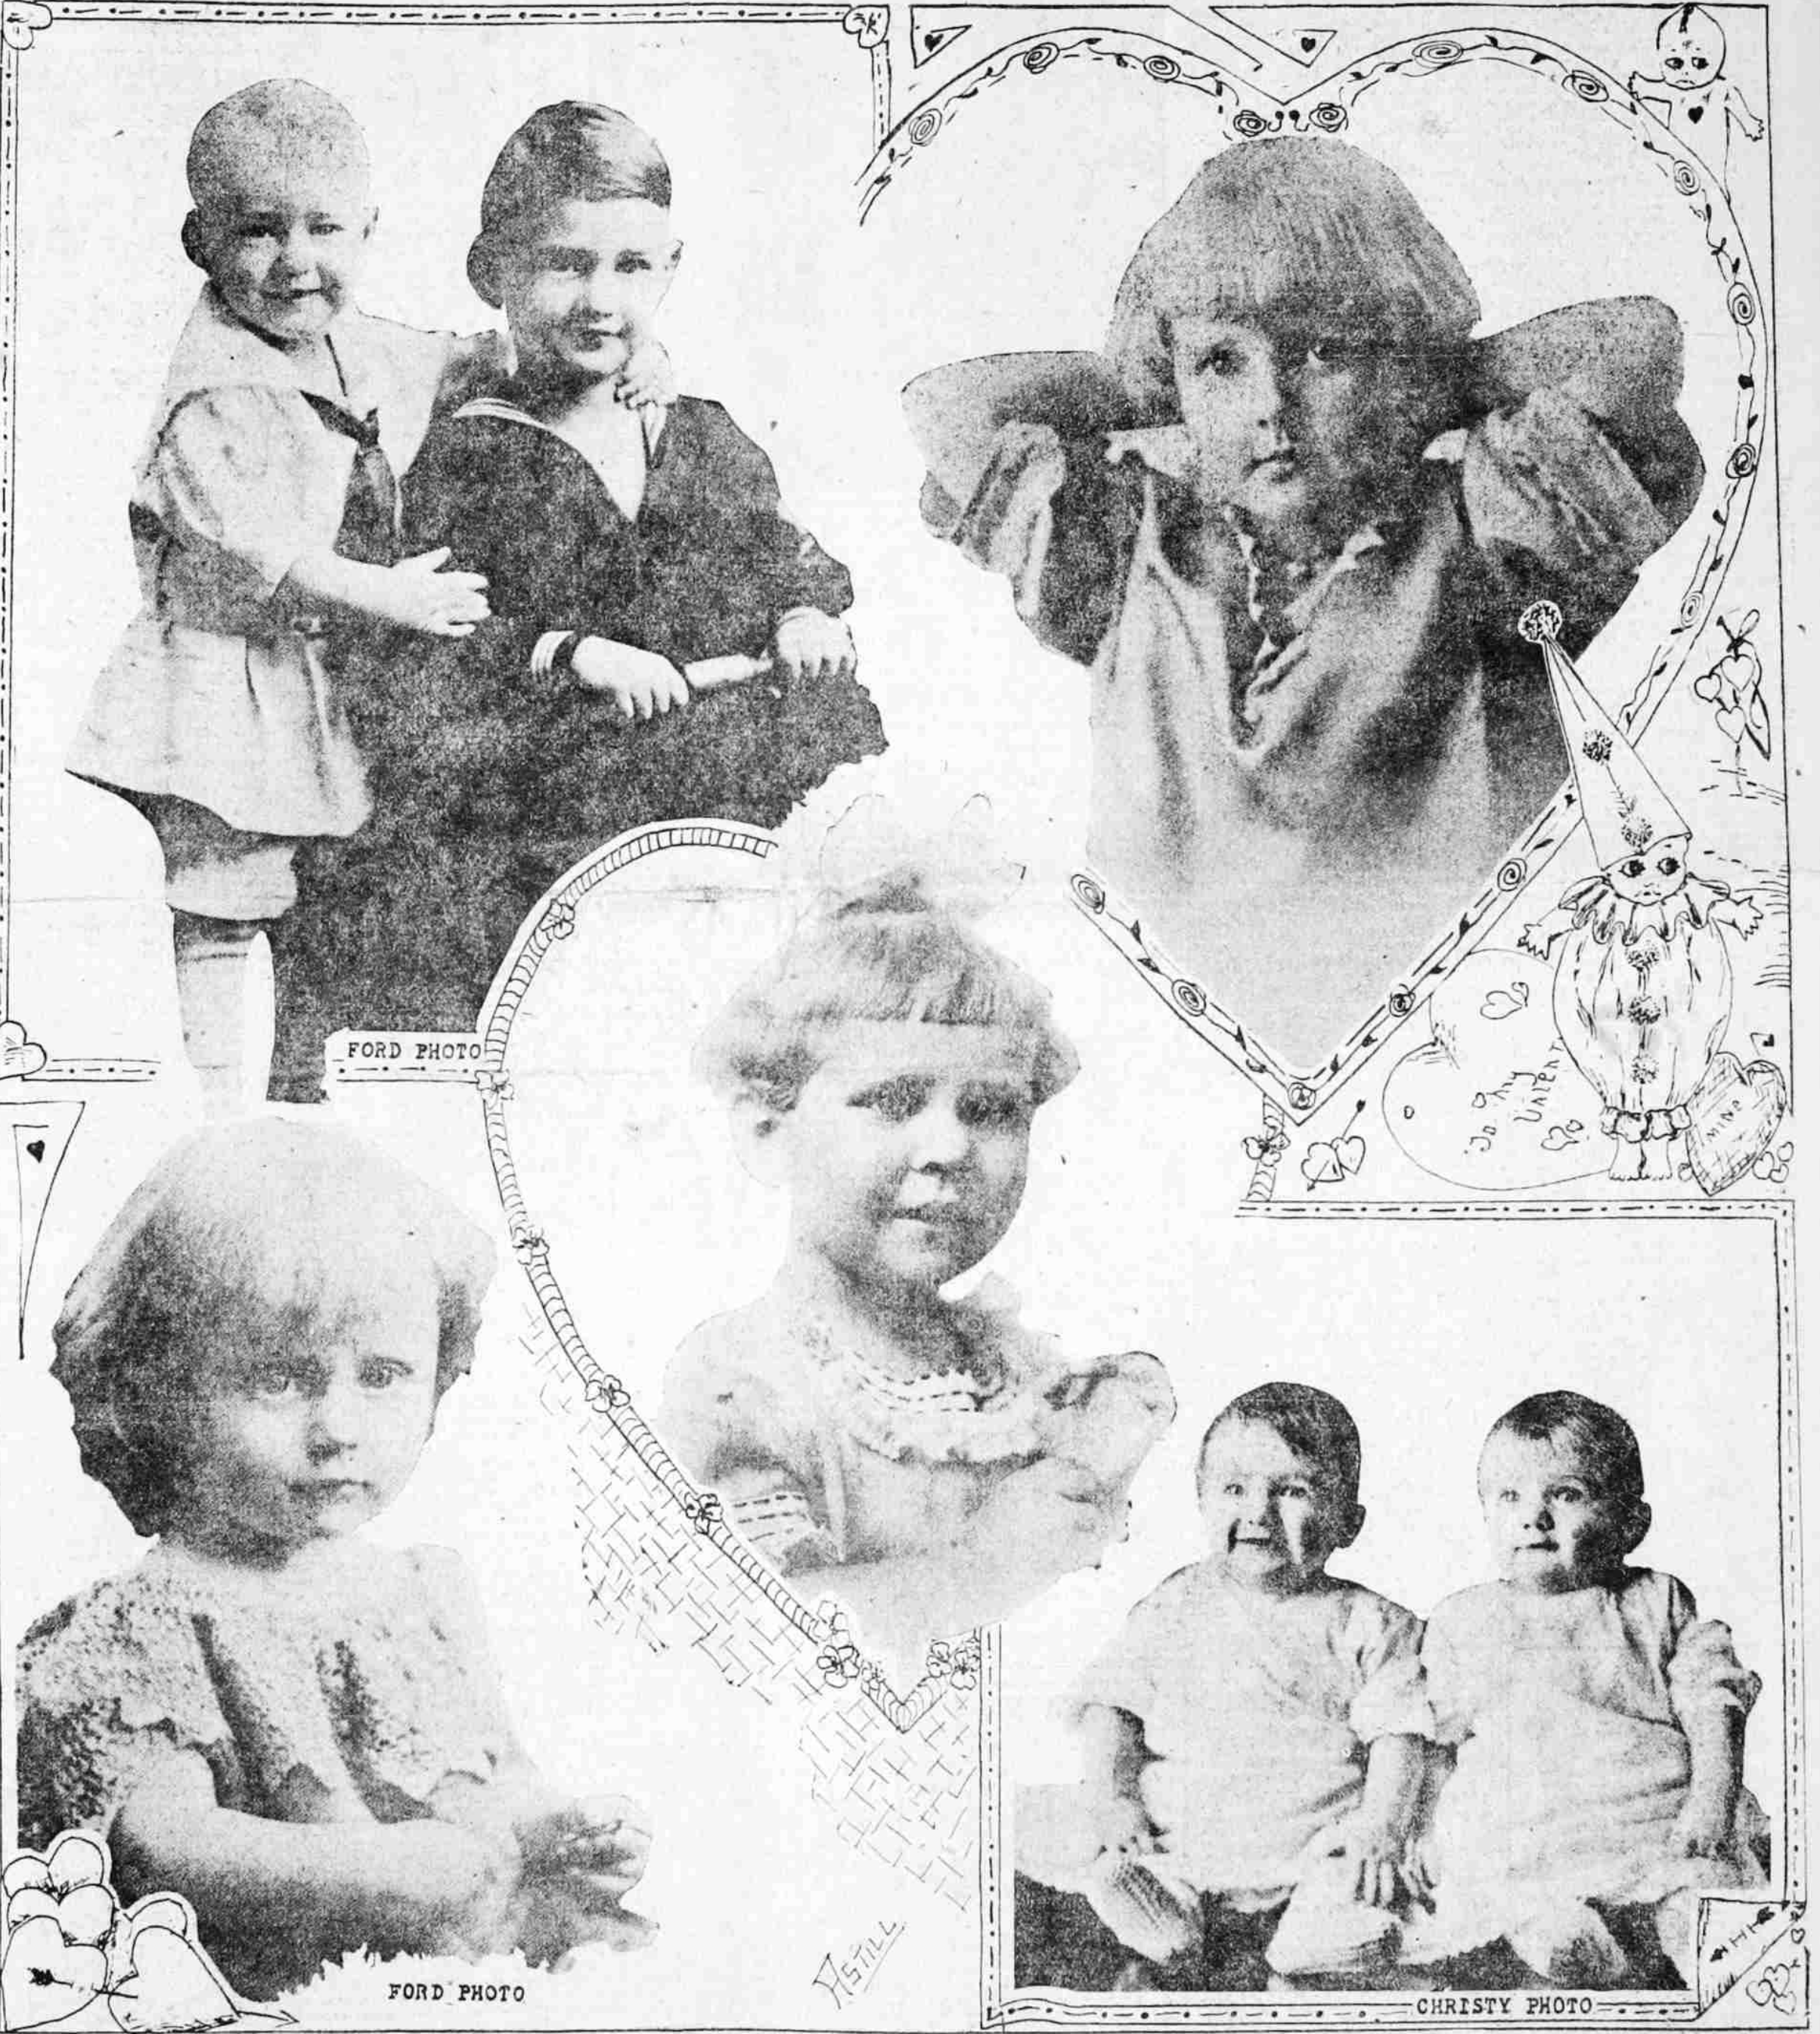

The reception hall, the blue room and the dining room were appropriately decorated. Dancing continued until 1 o'clock. Dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge. Appreciation was expressed by every guest and the second annual ball declared a success.

Thirty-second guests and early hours were spent in conversation and in social chat followed by a delicious two-course dinner. Mrs. C. H. Stewart, Mrs. Josephine Ferraro, Mrs. J. R. Quinn, Mrs. G. V. Simpson, Mrs. L. L. Mortensen, Mrs.

UNDER the care of old Father Time, the years pass quickly and before long some of Ogden's youngest masters and misses will be appearing in the society circles of Ogden as handsome suitors and charming debutantes. Here we have Master Junior Glasmann and Master Darrell Argubright at the upper left. Master Junior, the older, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Glasmann, and Master Darrell the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Argubright. The boys are cousins. Little Miss Lucile Scowcroft, upper right, has a far away look in her eyes, evidently anticipating the day of her debut. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heber C. Scowcroft. In the center heart is Miss Betty Bristol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Bristol, who seems to be not worrying a particle about the future, while little Miss Mary Patricia Brown, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Mark Brown, is trying to decide just how she will have her coming out dress made. The twins are Dorothy and Dora Donaldson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. David D. Donaldson.

Robert Archer, Mrs. W. J. Critchlow, Mrs. Fred Arnold, Mrs. C. L. Petersen, Mrs. D. L. Peterson, Mrs. E. L. Wecker, Mrs. A. E. Gilbert, Mrs. M. L. Critchlow, Mrs. D. A. Critchlow, Mrs. J. L. Mortensen, Mrs. Sanford Wright, Lydia Conway, Pearl Watkins, Lavern Bingham, Kathryn Bingham, Helen Bingham, Mrs. W. E. Bingham, Mrs. A. L. Bingham, Mrs. Walter Bingham and Mrs. Carl Bingham. Decorations were carried out in a pink and white color scheme.

Miss Abigail Hagley spent the week-end in Ogden visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hagley. Miss Hagley is a student at the Utah Agricultural college at Logan.

At the regular meeting of the Altriiart society held in the K. of P. hall Thursday evening, a report was made on the success of the Columbia symphony orchestra concert, which was sponsored by the society. A short program was carried out. It was decided during the meeting to give a big Altriiart society dance at the Berthana in the near future. Miss Cora Mortensen, general chairman of the social committee is making elaborate plans for the dance. Miss Annette Cunningham heads the dancing committee and will be assisted by Arthur Grix on the hall committee, and Misses Bernice Harris, Francis Coolidge, Phyllis King, Zella Wood, Louise Fisher, Mrs. John C. Davis, Mrs. Frank Tribe, Messrs. Reed Stephens and Delbert Craven. This committee will be increased to twenty-eight and invitations, refreshments and dance programs will all be taken in hand. The Altriiart society also plans to display some of its best talent in a program of ballet dance numbers, quartets and humorous recitations. One of the special features will be "Moonlight of Colored Shadows." Now under preparation. The date and character of the dance has not yet been decided. Votes will be taken on a character party, a masquerade party, or carnival review. There will be an officers' and directors' meeting Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Berthana, to decide the date of the affair.

The ladies' auxiliary to the Spanish War Veterans will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Mortensen, 265 Ninth street. Women veterans are invited to attend. The afternoon will be spent in needlework.

Mrs. C. H. Carman, who will leave tomorrow for Salt Lake to make her home, was the complimented guest at a farewell party given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Carman on Adams avenue. Only the members of the sewing club were present. Refreshments were served to twelve guests. Mrs. Carman was also the complimented guest at another party at the First Christian church Wednesday evening when members of the church held a reception in the parlors. A program, consisting of solos by Mrs. Lee Miller, Mr. Ware and readings with musical accompaniments by Mrs. W. L. Mellinger, was the entertaining feature. Refreshments were served to about 100 guests.

The elders' quorum of the Eleventh ward are planning for a social evening in the ward hall next Tuesday, February 8. A program will precede a dance at which all members of the quorum and their friends are invited to be present. The program will commence at 8 o'clock. Members of the high council are expected to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadman spent the week-end as guests of their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Wilkins of Hunter, Utah.

Mrs. E. J. Hettlinger of Idaho, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hettlinger during the early week. Mrs. Hettlinger left later for Berkeley, Calif., to visit her parents.
